

Company

Agile is a unique IT talent and consulting firm that transforms the way IT organizations do business by providing them with a faster route to top talent and technology solutions. Since 2003, Agile has been serving technology leaders in Atlanta and the Southeast. Founded by CEO, Tricia Dempsey while undergoing treatment for Stage 3 breast cancer, Agile has flourished – growing more than 400 percent in the past four years.

Service Offerings

Agile's delivery model -- The Agile Advantage -- provides technology leaders flexible delivery options in five core areas: Application Architecture & Delivery, Enterprise Operations, Project Management, Information Lifecycle Management, and CIO Advisory Services. Whether you're looking for perm, contract, one person or a team of experts – Agile is able to deliver top talent and technology solutions quickly, on-budget and on-time. By delivering top talent with core expertise, our clients benefit from increased productivity and innovative solutions that speed time to market and drive business value.

Core Values

- Advocacy - We create mutually beneficial partnerships between people who are passionate about one another's success.
